Are you interested in getting a report like this about your newsroom?

Please reach out to: gal@constructiveinstitute.org

CONSTRUCTIVE INSTITUTE
Journalism for tomorrow

Constructive News Mirror

CLASSIFYING CONSTRUCTIVE NEWS

Last week at your media:

Constructive Articles

All articles are analysed by Constructive News Algorithm.

Time Period: 13/05-20/05

Progress since december

December May

12.5% → 20.6%

Business	5/20	Culture	6/12
Health	7/35	Society	1/2
Climate	6/20	Other	7/42

Most Constructive topics in the last 30 days

Environment	Health	Business
40%	24%	22%

Least Constructive: Politics, Law and crime

CONSTRUCTIVE INSTITUTE
Journalism for tomorrow

Constructive Articles

Business

"Startup revolutionizes waste management with new technology"
"Local bakery expands, creating new jobs"
"Tech company launches eco-friendly product line"
"Jutland farm introduces robotic farming equipment"
"Export deal opens new markets for Danish seafood"
"Entrepreneurs receive funding to develop green energy solutions"

Environment

"New wildlife sanctuary opens in North Zealand"
"Residents unite to clean up local river"
"Endangered species makes a comeback in Danish forests"
"Community garden project promotes biodiversity"
"Innovative solar panels installed on school rooftops"
"Volunteers plant thousands of trees in urban areas"

Culture

"New theater group showcases local talent"
"Museum exhibit celebrates indigenous art"
"Author launches book series for young readers"
"Local musicians collaborate on community album"
"Art festival brings together diverse cultures"
"Youth program empowers aspiring filmmakers"

CONSTRUCTIVE INSTITUTE
Journalism for tomorrow

Constructive Articles

Health

"Danes' job satisfaction breaks records"
"More cases of salmonella among South and Southern Jutland residents"
"The Health Authority comes forward with recommendations for adult sleep for the first time"
"24-year-old Simone collects donations in her hometown against disease"
"Major collaboration to solve the nurse shortage"
"Winter bathers took the plunge to help patients"

Politics

"New education reform promises improved standards in schools"
"Government unveils plan to boost healthcare funding"
"Local elections see record voter turnout"
"New legislation aims to tackle housing crisis"
"Debate heats up over proposed tax reforms"
"Political leaders discuss strategies for economic recovery post-pandemic"

Local News

"New network to help families"
"Storm-flooded bathing piers find new life in gardens"
"Project manager wants adults to talk more openly about finances"
"Save the Children receives weekly inquiries from children and young people"
"Effective noses make airport security safer"
"Flooded fields delay work and affect crops"

CONSTRUCTIVE INSTITUTE
Journalism for tomorrow

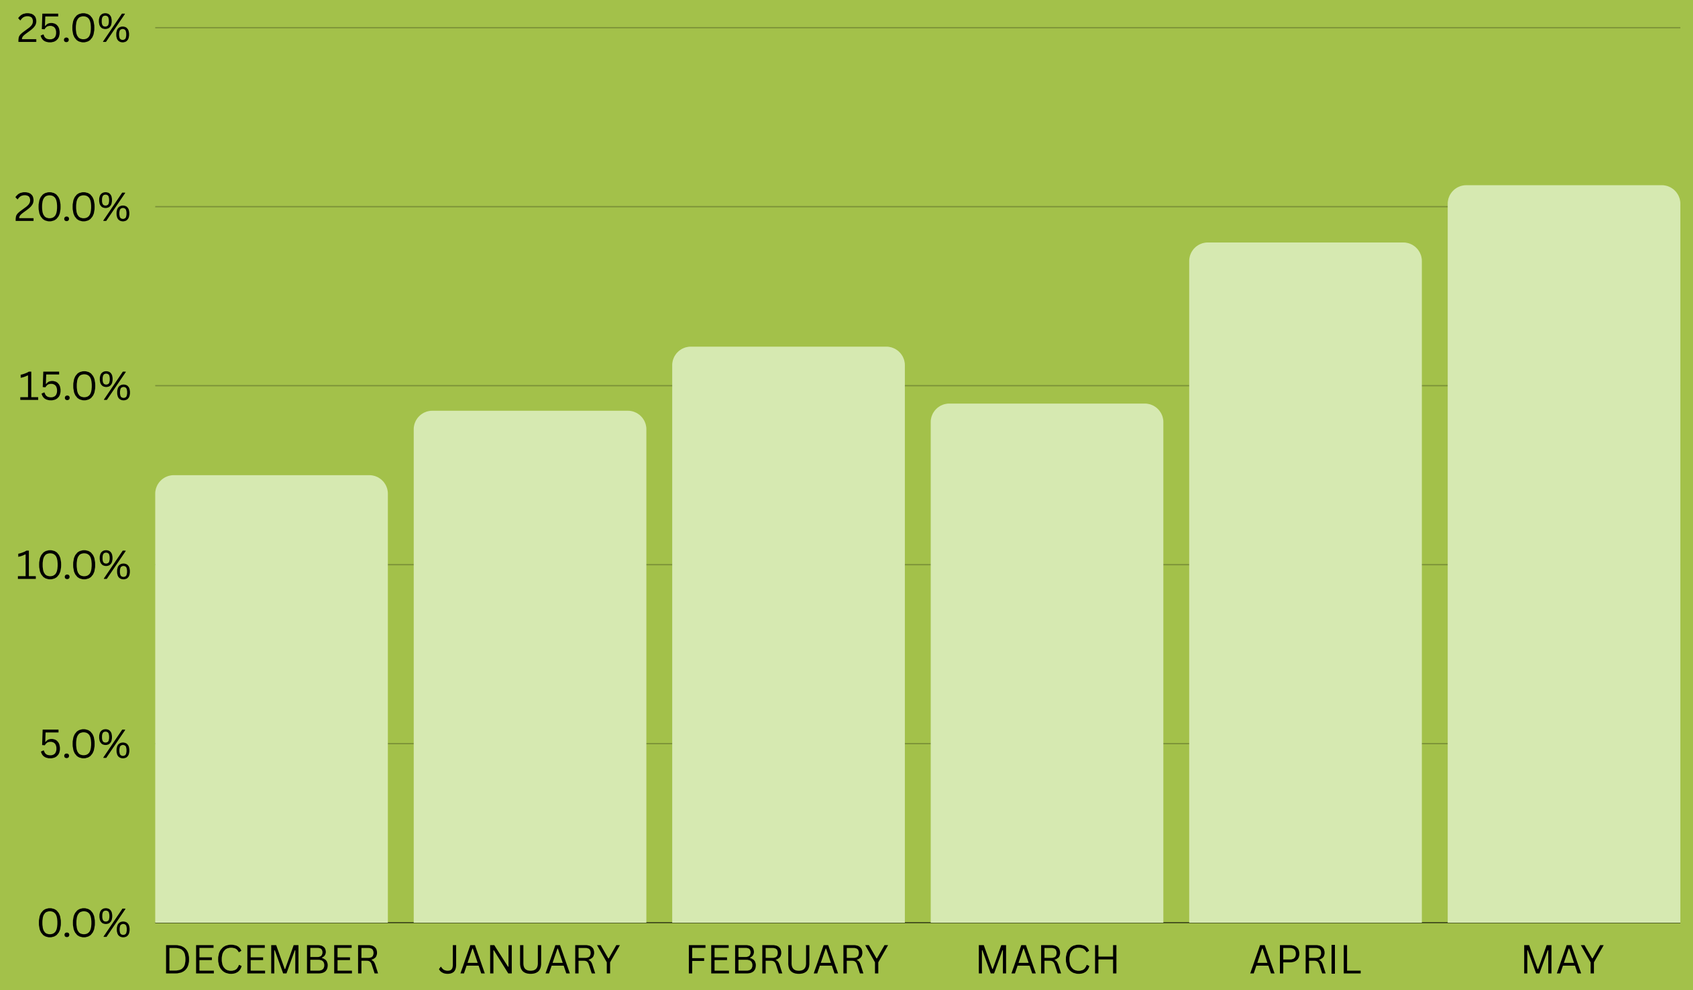
Constructive ‘Law and Crime’

The topic Law and Crime has been the least constructive during the last month.
Here are good examples from your own archive

1. "Major crackdown on organized crime leads to multiple arrests"
2. "Landmark court ruling strengthens data privacy laws"
3. "Police dismantle drug trafficking ring in Copenhagen"
4. "New legislation aims to combat cybercrime"
5. "Community initiatives reduce youth crime rates in urban areas"

CONSTRUCTIVE INSTITUTE
Journalism for tomorrow

Development of Constructive Stories



CONSTRUCTIVE INSTITUTE
Journalism for tomorrow

Selection Criteria

Topics such as weather, sports, obituaries, etc. are excluded.
All articles are copied from www.com

CONSTRUCTIVE
INSTITUTE
Journalism for tomorrow

Are you interested in getting a report like this about your newsroom?

Please reach out to: gal@constructiveinstitute.org